

Marion Couesnon
hyperactive designer

PROFILE

I am an enthusiastic 27-year-old interaction designer. Since 2011, I have learned interaction design and discovered printing techniques with passion. Driven by curiosity, I cultivate a multidisciplinary background. I expect to find a company that aims to contribute to society with their innovative products. I do speak french, english and german.

AMBITIONS

- Find a challenging job in a benevolent environment where I could push my UX, UI and coding skills forward.
- Create and host my own design podcast.
- Experiment with silkscreen printing.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- I have interviewed over 60 people while travelling on my own in the USA.
- One of my project (Deadline) was exhibited at the Salone del Mobile (Milan, 2017).
- I presented my design research at the JDRC (Junior Design Research Conference, 2016).
